

DENVER MOURNS KENNEDY

The flag on the top of the Denver Dry Goods Co. building at 15th and California Sts. flies at half-staff Friday afternoon.

These faces in The Denver Post newsroom mirror the grief displayed by thousands of Denverites when they heard bad news.

An unidentified girl shows her grief at the death of John F. Kennedy by crying at the corner of 17th and California Sts.

An unidentified man prays for President Kennedy in the Roman Catholic Church of the Holy Ghost at 19th and California Sts.
